DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-4 have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Hoffman (US Patent Application No 2004/0128249).

As per claim 1,
Hoffman ('249) discloses in a computer network,
a system for performing a secured transaction between a buyer's PC, a vendor server, a creditor server and a security server, wherein said buyer's PC has received fingerprint programming from said security server. (Abstract, paragraphs 68 and 89)

As per claim 1,
Hoffman ('249) discloses a system for performing a secured transaction according to claim 1, wherein said buyer's PC has received encryption programming and decryption programming from said security server. (paragraphs 94)

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3 and 4 are allowable over the prior art record.

Conclusion

Examiners note: Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers in the references as applied to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings of the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant in preparing responses, to fully
